

THE HINDU

HR conclave

Great Lakes Institute of Management, Gurugram, recently organised a HR Conclave themed as

"Millennials and the Evolving Work Environment". It had two panel discussions – managing millennial motivations and navigating the technology-impacted workplace. Niti Khosla, Global Lead of People Analytics and Business Impact, Novartis International, Switzerland was the keynote speaker for the first panel and Manoj Varghese, former director (HR), Asia Pacific, Google and Former Director (Operations), Facebook India delivered the keynote address for the second panel.
